

LA County
Natural Areas

SCAVENGER HUNTER

Join us if you dare, for a county-wide scavenger hunt at seven of our Natural Area Parks. Use the provided coordinates and tales to uncover enchanted locations. Visit them all to win a prize!

Oct. 22 - Nov. 1

ABOUT THE HAUNT

Welcome to the first annual Natural Areas Scavenger Haunt!

Join us on a quest to visit enchanted sites at each of our Natural Area Parks.

From the shores of San Pedro, patrolled by dark fairies, to the jagged formations of Vasquez

Rocks, we hope you will join us on a one-of-a-kind adventure in the mystical outdoors. Visit all seven sites to win a prize.

HOW TO PLAY

Each of the seven parks will share a tale and coordinates for you to use as clues to find the chosen site. Once you find the location, take a photo with yourself there and share it with us via social media:

Tag us at @LACountyParks
(Twitter or Instagram)

@Parks.LACounty.gov
(Facebook)

Hashtag: #ParksScavengerHaunt

LIST OF LOCATIONS

Deane Dana Friendship Park
(San Pedro)

Eaton Canyon Natural Area
(Pasadena; Reservation required for entry, visit Reservations.LACounty.gov)

Placerita Canyon Natural Area
(Newhall)

San Dimas Canyon Park
(San Dimas)

Stoneview Nature Center
(Culver City)

Vasquez Rocks Natural Area
(Agua Dulce)

Whittier Narrows Natural Area
(South El Monte)

